

2nd Summer School of Heterodox Economics,
Al. Niepodległości 10, Poznań, Poland
8-12 July 2013

Programme

7.07 Sunday	Plan	Time	8.07 Monday	9.07 Tuesday	10.07 Wednesday	11.07 Thursday	12.07 Friday
15.00-19.00 Welcome reception Poznan University of Economics Al. Niepodległości 10, Poznan Building A	Lecture 1	9.30-11.00	Jim Sturgeon	Jan Toporowski	Louis-Philippe Rochon	Wolfram Elsner	Wolfram Elsner
	Coffee break	11.00-11.30
	Lecture 2	11.30-13.00	Jim Sturgeon	Jan Toporowski	Louis-Philippe Rochon	Wolfram Elsner	Paolo Ramazzotti
	Lunch	13.00-13.30
	Lecture 3/Discussion groups	13.30-15.00	Louis-Philippe Rochon	Discussion groups	Discussion group	Paolo Ramazzotti	Discussion groups
	PhD Students presentations and reviews/Discussion groups	15.00-17.00	PhD Students presentations and reviews by: - Jim Sturgeon -Louis-Philippe Rochon	PhD Students presentations and review by: - Jan Toporowski	Discussion groups	PhD Students presentations and reviews by: - Wolfram Elsner - Paolo Ramazzotti
Evening attractions					Malta Festival event

Lecturers of the 2nd Summer School of Heterodox Economics

LECTURER	TOPIC
Prof. Jan Toporowski School of Oriental and African Studies University of London	- Theory of Kalecki in a field of monetary market and economic policy
Prof. Jim Sturgeon University of Missouri, Kansas City	- Institutional economics approaches to industrial organization
Prof. Louis-Philippe Rochon Laurentian University, Sudbury, Ontario Canada	- Methodology of analysis in the fields of endogenous money analysis in post-Keynesian theory
Prof. Paolo Ramazzotti University of Macerata, Italy	- Evolutionary and institutional economics as a reliable basis for public choice and economic policy performance
Prof. Wolfram Elsner University of Bremen, Germany	- Micro and meso-economics in the evolutionary-institutional approach: interpretation of the game theory and fields of application - Theory of institutional change - Neoliberalism, redistribution, and financial crisis - financial capitalism trapped in an 'impossible' profit rate